

Name: _____

Class: _____

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

The Possessive Case

a. Write the missing possessive adjective in each blank.

1. I am doing homework.
2. Betty is brushing teeth.
3. Sam is fixing bicycle.
4. The teachers are reading newspapers.
5. The grandma is looking for glasses.
6. We are in school now. school is very big.
7. I like father. love for me is great.
8. The baby is drinking milk.
9. The children are riding bikes.
10. My friends are reading books.

b. Write the missing possessive adjective in each blank.

1. I am cleaning shoes.
2. We have got a house in the country. house is big and beautiful.
3. She is doing homework in room now.
4. The boys are washing hands in the bathroom.
5. Our English teacher is rich. / car is a Mercedes.
6. Jason is lazy. scores are very low.
7. The cat is hungry. milk is in the dish.
8. My brothers are basketball players. team is very successful.
9. We are in the classroom. classroom is clean and tidy.
10. The car is out of order. engine is not working.

c. Replace the highlighted words with a possessive adjective.

Mr. Parson's (.....) wife is an associate professor in Cambridge University.

This year Kofi Annan is the United Nation's (.....) secretary general.

Ankara's (.....) population is about three and a half million.

Alphaville's (.....) songs are very popular.

The butterfly's (.....) wings are colourful.

Women's (.....) clothes are elegant.

Here is the building's (.....) entrance.

Pat's (.....) yacht is very comfortable.

Doris's (.....) house is far from the city center.

The Hamiltons' (.....) mansion is very big.

Name: _____

Class: _____

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

-ANSWER KEY-

The Possessive Case

a. Write the missing possessive adjective in each blank.

1. I am doing ...my... homework.
2. Betty is brushing ...her... teeth.
3. Sam is fixing ...his... bicycle.
4. The teachers are reading ...their... newspapers.
5. The grandma is looking for ...her... glasses.
6. We are in school now. ...Our... school is very big.
7. I like ...my... father. ...His... love for me is great.
8. The baby is drinking ...its... milk.
9. The children are riding ...their... bikes.
10. My friends are reading ...their... books.

b. Write the missing possessive adjective in each blank.

1. I am cleaning ...my... shoes.
2. We have got a house in the country. ...Our... house is big and beautiful.
3. She is doing ...her... homework in ...her... room now.
4. The boys are washing ...their... hands in the bathroom.
5. Our English teacher is rich. ...Her.../His... car is a Mercedes.
6. Jason is lazy. ...His... scores are very low.
7. The cat is hungry. ...Its... milk is in the dish.
8. My brothers are basketball players. ...Their... team is very successful.
9. We are in the classroom. ...Our... classroom is clean and tidy.
10. The car is out of order. ...Its... engine is not working.

c. Replace the highlighted words with a possessive adjective.

Mr. Parson's (...His...) wife is an associate professor in Cambridge University.

This year Kofi Annan is the United Nation's (...its...) secretary general.

Ankara's (...Its...) population is about three and a half million.

Alphaville's (...Their...) songs are very popular.

The butterfly's (...Its...) wings are colourful.

Women's (...Their...) clothes are elegant.

Here is the building's (...its...) entrance.

Pat's (...Her...) yacht is very comfortable.

Doris's (...Her...) house is far from the city center.

The Hamiltons' (...Their...) mansion is very big.

