

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

CLASS: _____

TEACHER: _____

COMBINING SENTENCES

AND - BUT - OR

Use and, but, or or to combine and rewrite each pair of sentences.

1. Fredrick came home from school. He did his homework.

---

---

2. It snowed all night. School was canceled.

---

---

3. Nancy likes to dance. Donna, her sister, likes to sing.

---

---

4. The clouds grew darker. The wind began to gust.

---

---

5. Georgia enjoys basketball. She enjoys softball too.

---

---

6. It might rain tonight. It might snow.

---

---

7. Bill could do his math homework. He could work on his science project.

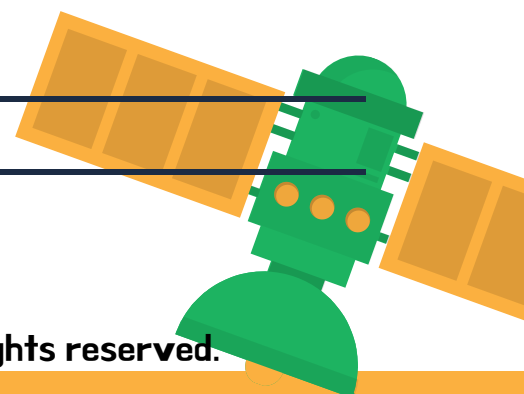

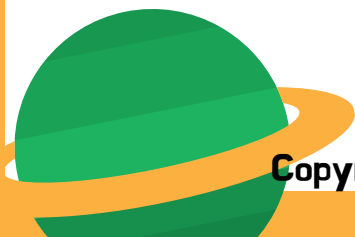

---

---

8. The puppy growled at the toy. It was a playful growl.

---

---

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

CLASS: _____

TEACHER: _____

COMBINING SENTENCES - ANSWER KEY -

AND - BUT - OR

Use and, but, or or to combine and rewrite each pair of sentences.

Answers for the worksheets throughout this section will vary, depending on your responses.

1. Fredrick came home from school. He did his homework.

Fredrick came home from school and did his homework.

2. It snowed all night. School was canceled.

It snowed all night, and school was canceled.

3. Nancy likes to dance. Donna, her sister, likes to sing.

Nancy likes to dance, but Donna, her sister, likes to sing.

4. The clouds grew darker. The wind began to gust.

The clouds grew darker, and the wind began to gust.

5. Georgia enjoys basketball. She enjoys softball too.

Georgia enjoys basketball, but she enjoys softball too.

6. It might rain tonight. It might snow.

It might rain tonight, or it might snow.

7. Bill could do his math homework. He could work on his science project.

Bill could do his math homework, or he could work on his science project.

8. The puppy growled at the toy. It was a playful growl.

The puppy growled at the toy, but it was a playful growl.

