

Name

Date

Adverbs in the present tense

Languages

- Match 1-6 to a-f to make sentences.
 - In Portugal and Brazil, people speak ..f.
 - I work in Egypt now. I speak
 - I live in Beijing, so I speak
 - In Argentina, Chile and Mexico, people speak
 - In New Zealand, people speak
 - His mother is from the Netherlands, so he speaks

- Arabic
- Spanish
- English
- Dutch
- Chinese
- Portugese

Adverbs of manner

2. Complete the text with adverbs of manner. Change the adjectives below into adverbs.

bad – easy – good – hard – quick – quiet

Sonia Brown is a journalist and she travels to different countries for her work. 'I learn languages easily,' she explains. At the moment she lives in Egypt. 'I can speak Arabic 2..... My mother is Morrocan and we speak Arabic together.'

'My job is exciting. I find out about people's lives and write reports. I write 3..... A slow journalist isn't very useful! I have one problem, I spell 4.....! I can't live without my dictionary.'

'I work very 5..... That's OK because I love my job, but sometimes I like to sit 6..... and read. Everybody needs to relax!'

3. Rewrite the sentences using the adverb form of the adjectives in brackets.

- My brother sings. (bad)
My brother sings badly.
- I speak. (quick)
.....
- Do you play your violin? (quiet)
.....
- I can't play the keyboards. (good)
.....
- Athletes train every day. (hard)
.....
- You run. (slow)
.....
- Can you learn new dances? (easy)
.....

4. Listen and match the dialogues to pictures A-D.

A

B

C

D

Dialogue 1: Dialogue 3:
 Dialogue 2: Dialogue 4:

5. Tick the pictures in exercise 4 in which the responses to requests are 'yes'.

6. Put the words in the correct order to make requests. Match them to responses a-d. Then listen again and check your answers.

- you / me, / please / help / Could ?
.....
- kitchen / me / a / get / Can / from / drink / you / the ?
.....
- a / Can / get / pizza, / me / please / you ?
.....
- you / Could / the / please / window, / open ?
.....

- Yes of course, here you are.
- No, sorry. I can't. It doesn't open.
- Yes, of course. Where's your car?
- No, sorry, I can't. I want to work. You can get a drink.

7 CHALLENGE! Choose two pictures and write a dialogue for each one. Use requests and responses.

Name

Date

Adverbs in the present tense

-Answer Key-

Languages

- Match 1-6 to a-f to make sentences.
- In Portugal and Brazil, people speak ..f.
- I work in Egypt now. I speak a.
- I live in Beijing, so I speak ..e
- In Argentina, Chile and Mexico, people speak b
- In New Zealand, people speak c
- His mother is from the Netherlands, so he speaksd

- a. Arabic
- b. Spanish
- c. English
- d. Dutch
- e. Chinese
- f. ~~Portugese~~ Portuguese

Adverbs of manner

2. Complete the text with adverbs of manner. Change the adjectives below into adverbs.

bad - easy - good - hard - quick - quiet

Sonia Brown is a journalist and she travels to different countries for her work. 'I learn languages easily' she explains. At the moment she lives in Egypt. 'I can speak Arabic 2. well My mother is Moroccan and we speak Arabic together.'

'My job is exciting. I find out about people's lives and write reports. I write 3. quickly A slow journalist isn't very useful! I have one problem, I spell 4. badly! I can't live without my dictionary.'

'I work very 5. hard That's OK because I love my job, but sometimes I like to sit 6. quietly and read. Everybody needs to relax!

3. Rewrite the sentences using the adverb form of the adjectives in brackets.

- My brother sings. (bad)
My brother sings badly.
- I speak. (quick)
I speak quickly.
- Do you play your violin? (quiet)
Do you play your violin quietly?
- I can't play the keyboards. (good)
I can't play the keyboards well.
- Athletes train every day. (hard)
Athletes train hard every day.
- You run. (slow)
You run slowly.
- Can you learn new dances? (easy)
Can you learn new dances easily?

4. Listen and match the dialogues to pictures A-D.

A

B

C

D

- Dialogue 1: B
Dialogue 2: C
Dialogue 3: A
Dialogue 4: D

5. Tick the pictures in exercise 4 in which the responses to requests are 'yes'.

6. Put the words in the correct order to make requests. Match them to responses a-d. Then listen again and check your answers.

- you / me, / please / help / Could ?
Could you help me, please?
- kitchen / me / a / get / Can / from / drink / you / the ?
Can you get me a drink from the kitchen?
- a / Can / get / pizza, / me / please / you ?
Can you get me a pizza, please?
- you / Could / the / please / window, / open ?
Could you open the window, please?

- a. Yes of course, here you are. 3
- b. No, sorry. I can't. It doesn't open. 4
- c. Yes, of course. Where's your car? 1
- d. No, sorry, I can't. I want to work. You can get a drink. 2

7 CHALLENGE! Choose two pictures and write a dialogue for each one. Use requests and responses.

