

Name: _____

Date: _____

Would like and like

Choosing the correct form.

a. Tick the correct form of the verb.

A: Would you like a drink?

Do you like a drink?

B: Yes, please. I'll have an orange juice.

A: Do you like your teacher?

Would you like your teacher?

B: Yes, she's very nice.

A: Do you like going for walks?

Would you like to go for a walk?

B: Yes, I often go walking in Scotland.

A: Do you like swimming?

Would you like to go for a swim?

B: What a good idea! It's so hot today!

A: What do you like doing at the weekend?

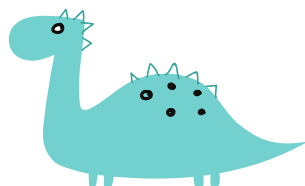

What would you like to do this weekend?

B: I like putting my feet up and relaxing. Sometimes I play tennis.

A: What do you like to do in the evening?

What would you like to do this evening?

B: Why don't we pop round and see Pat and Peter?

would like or like!

b. Complete the sentences with would like (to do) or like (doing) and the correct form of the verb.

A: What sort of books _____ you _____ (read)?

B: I _____ biographies and thrillers.

A: _____ you _____ (be) a teacher when you grow up?

B: No. They don't earn very much and they work very hard.

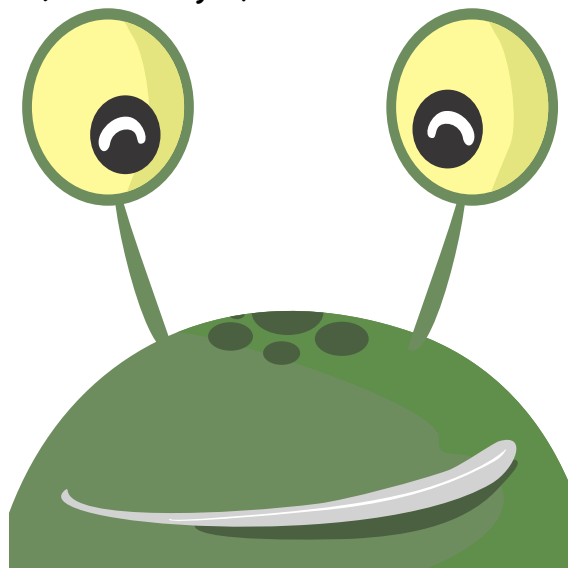

A: It's Sophie's birthday soon.

B: Is it? What _____ she _____ (have) for a present?

A: Well, I know she _____ (cook). Why don't you buy her a new cook book?

My daughter has a lot of pens and pencils. She _____ (draw).

My son is a very fast runner. I he says that one day he _____ (run) in the Olympic Games.

Name: _____

Teacher: _____

Grade & Section: _____

Date: _____

-Answer Key-

Choosing the correct form.

a. Tick the correct form of the verb.

A: Would you like a drink?
Do you like a drink?

B: Yes, please. I'll have an orange juice.

A: Do you like your teacher?
Would you like your teacher?

B: Yes, she's very nice.

A: Do you like going for walks?
Would you like to go for a walk?

B: Yes, I often go walking in Scotland.

A: Do you like swimming?
Would you like to go for a swim?

B: What a good idea! It's so hot today!

A: What do you like doing at the weekend?

What would you like to do this weekend?

B: I like putting my feet up and relaxing. Sometimes I play tennis.

A: What do you like to do in the evening?

What would you like to do this evening?

B: Why don't we pop round and see Pat and Peter?

would like or like!

b. Complete the sentences with would like (to do) or like (doing) and the correct form of the verb.

A: What sort of books do you like reading (read)?

B: I like reading biographies and thrillers.

A: Would you like to be (be) a teacher when you grow up?

B: No. They don't earn very much and they work very hard.

A: It's Sophie's birthday soon.

B: Is it? What would she like to have (have) for a present?

A: Well, I know she likes cooking (cook). Why don't you buy her a new cook book?

My daughter has a lot of pens and pencils. She likes drawing (draw).

My son is a very fast runner. I le says that one day he would like to run (run) in the Olympic Games.

