

USED TO, BE USED TO, OR GET USED TO

Complete the sentence with used to, be used to, or get used to (positive or negative) and the verb in brackets.

- 1 My friend is Spanish, so _____ lunch early. (have)
- 2 When Jeremy started his first job, he couldn't _____ at 6.00 a.m. (get up)
- 3 I didn't recognize you! You _____ blonde hair, didn't you? (have)
- 4 Francine _____ a flat when she was at university, but now she has a house of her own. (rent)
- 5 When we were children, we _____ all day playing football in the park. (spend)
- 6 Florence has been a nurse all her life, so she _____ nights. (work)
- 7 I've never worn glasses before, but now I'll have to _____ them. (wear)
- 8 Maggie is an only child. She _____ her things. (share)
- 9 Although I've lived in Spain for years, I've never _____ dinner at nine or ten o'clock at night. (have)
- 10 I _____ spinach, but now I love it. (like)
- 11 If you want to get fit, then you'll have to _____ more, (exercise)

USED TO, BE USED TO, OR GET USED TO

Complete the sentence with used to, be used to, or get used to (positive or negative) and the verb in brackets.

- 1 My friend is Spanish, so isn't used to having lunch early. (have)
- 2 When Jeremy started his first job, he couldn't get used to getting up at 6.00 a.m. (get up)
- 3 I didn't recognize you! You used to have blonde hair, didn't you? (have)
- 4 Francine used to rent a flat when she was at university, but now she has a house of her own. (rent)
- 5 When we were children, we used to spend all day playing football in the park. (spend)
- 6 Florence has been a nurse all her life, so she is used to working nights. (work)
- 7 I've never worn glasses before, but now I'll have to get used to wearing them. (wear)
- 8 Maggie is an only child. She isn't used to sharing her things. (share)
- 9 Although I've lived in Spain for years, I've never got used to having dinner at nine or ten o'clock at night. (have)
- 10 I didn't use to like spinach, but now I love it. (like)
- 11 If you want to get fit, then you'll have to get used to exercising more. (exercise)

