

Name _____

Date _____

Section _____

Score _____

WRITING

Writing a Postcard

a. Read the postcard. What is the only adjective used by Tony and Andrea?

Dear Kelly,

We are having a nice time here in Scotland, but the weather isn't very nice
We're staying in a nice hotel near a nice town Called Radisson. We have nice views of the mountains and forests from our bedroom. Yesterday we went to see Blair Castle. It was really nice. Today we are hoping to go for a nice walk by the take (called a "loch" here!). Did you have a nice time in Italy?
We'll ring you next week.

Kelly Kevinsen
'Blue Capes'
3 Stone Lane
Rustington
Preston.
CF3 9XI

Love. Tony and Andrea xxx

b. Tony and Andrea use "nice" eight times. Complete the sentences below with a better adjective from the box. Use each adjective once only. Careful! Sometimes more than one word is possible, but not always!

lovely small terrible comfortable spectacular old long good

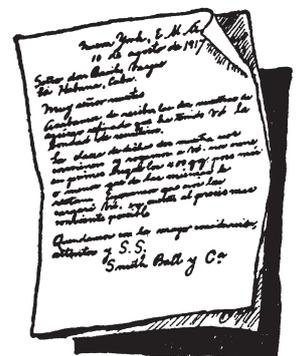

- We're having a _____ time here in Scotland.
- But the weather is _____.
- We're staying in a _____ hotel near a _____ town.
- We have _____ views of the mountains.
- The castle was really _____.
- We're hoping to go for a _____ walk by the lake.
- Did you have a _____ time in Italy?

WOW!

c. Where were you on your last holiday? Imagine you are still there. Write a postcard to a British friend, but use the adjective nice once only! Write about these things.

- the weather
- something you did yesterday
- the accommodation
- something you are going to do today
- use the next page to write

Name _____

Date _____

Section _____

Score _____

-Answer Key-

WRITING

Writing a Postcard

a. Read the postcard. What is the only adjective used by Tony and Andrea? nice

Dear Kelly,

We are having a nice time here in Scotland, but the weather isn't very nice
We're staying in a nice hotel near a nice town called Radisson. We have nice views of the mountains and forests from our bedroom. Yesterday we went to see Blair Castle. It was really nice. Today we are hoping to go for a nice walk by the lake (called a "loch" here!). Did you have a nice time in Italy?
We'll ring you next week.

Kelly Kevinsen
'Blue Capes'
3 Stone Lane
Rustington
Preston.
CF3 9XI

Love. Tony and Andrea xxx

b. Tony and Andrea use "nice" eight times. Complete the sentences below with a better adjective from the box. Use each adjective once only. Careful! Sometimes more than one word is possible, but not always!

lovely small terrible comfortable spectacular old long good

- We're having a lovely time here in Scotland.
- But the weather is terrible.
- We're staying in a comfortable hotel near a small town.
- We have spectacular views of the mountains.
- The castle was really old.
- We're hoping to go for a long walk by the lake.
- Did you have a good time in Italy?

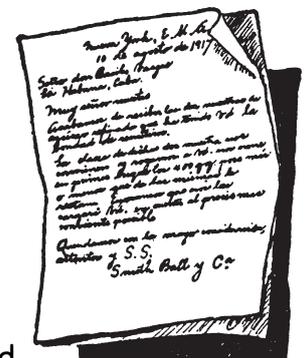

WOW!

c. Where were you on your last holiday? Imagine you are still there. Write a postcard to a British friend, but use the adjective nice once only! Write about these things.

- the weather
- something you did yesterday
- the accommodation
- something you are going to do today
- Use the next page to write

Students' answer only!

My Holiday Postcard

Instructions: On the blank side of the postcard, draw a picture of your holiday.
On the other side, write a brief description of what you did, addressing it to your teacher.

Postcard

.....
.....
.....
.....